Wesleyan Holiness Women Clergy

Letter from the President

Rev. Carla Sunberg

Greetings!

The Lord continues to open doors for women clergy to serve Him! We want to bring you up to date on several changes in our organization during the past few months and share with you some of the excitement that lies ahead.

During the WHWC April Board of Director's meeting, Rev. Sheryl Colter felt that her season of leading WHWC had come to an end and that it was time to pass on the baton of leadership. WHWC gratefully acknowledges the leadership of Rev. Colter and her faithful support of WHWC. She led us through a time of transition and we will always be thankful.

The Board elected me to serve as the next President of WHWC. In addition, the Board also voted to change the leadership structure. Beginning this year, the president will serve a two-year term. The position of president will be rotated among the sponsoring denominations following an established schedule set by the Board. Rev. Lucia Delamarter, representing the Free Methodists, will follow my presidency beginning in 2011. We believe this structure will provide for more continuity and better planning for the long-term leadership of WHWC.

Consistent communication through the WHWC newsletter, Wellspring, is an important part of supporting our membership. Rev. Lucia Delamarter and I will serve as co-editors of Wellspring, with the Communications committee serving as managing editors. The newsletter will be delivered in an electronic PDF format twice a year, in the winter and summer. If you are interested in contributing an article to the newsletter, please feel free to contact us at:

During these difficult economic days we want to focus on what we do best — providing an excellent conference for professional women clergy in the holiness tradition. We are pleased to announce that the next Come to the Water conference will be held March 31-April 3, 2011 at the Millennium Hotel in St. Louis, MO. Planning has already started. We trust you will mark your calendars now and plan to attend. Tell your friends about your experiences at Come to the Water and bring them with you as well!

May God bless you and lead you. We look forward to communicating with you again in January. In the meantime--continue preaching the Word!
